Free Classes for Adults

September-December 2008

The following conversation groups are now meeting at Literacy Volunteers of East Bay, 17 Croade St. (just behind the George Hail Library in Warren). Classes are taught by dedicated volunteers.

ESOL Group III/IV--Intermediate

Time: Tuesday, 9:30-11:30 am

Instructor: Betty Durfee

The emphasis of this class will be developing conversational skills. Participants will also work on reading, writing, and grammar. Class will be tailored to the needs of the students.

Beginning Reading, Writing and Math

Time: Wednesday, 9:15-11:15 am

Instructor: Elizabeth Vetromile

Students in the class get help with basic skills: reading, spelling, writing, and math. All students enrolled also have a one-to-one tutor.

ESOL Group IV-V—Intermediate/Advanced

Time: Thursday, 9:30-11:30 am

Instructor: Debbie Moye-Fuller

This class will provide opportunity for intermediate and advanced students to improve their listening comprehension and conversational skills.

Preparing for the New Citizenship Exam

Time: Wednesday, 6:00-8:00 pm

Instructor: Nina Wilcox

This citizenship workshop will begin on September 24th and be on-going. Topics to be discussed include citizenship eligibility requirements; citizenship test preparation; the citizenship interview, and where, when and how much it costs to file an application. This workshop will focus exclusively on the new test that will be given to those who apply after Oct. 1. Attendees may bring completed applications for review.
